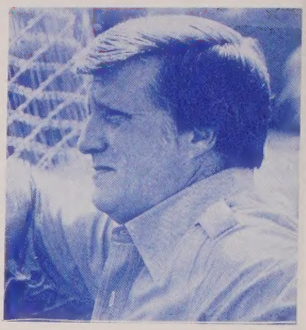
GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III



Every young man searching for his own place in today's world would be well advised to heed the advice and example of sportsman, business executive and civic leader, George M. Steinbrenner.

Steinbrenner, a national figure before he was 40, offers a succinct basic formula for success. "Work as hard as you ask others to. Strive for what you believe is right, no matter the odds. Learn that mistakes can be the best teacher of all." Certainly the meteoric career of this energetic son of a distinguished Great Lakes shipping family bears out the practical results of these simple beliefs.

In 1963, he entered the business world in earnest. In a way, it was a difficult adjustment for a man who had already been an assistant football coach at two Big Ten universities, Northwestern and Purdue, and put together national championship teams in both the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues.

In the business world, Steinbrenner is Chairman of The American Shipbuilding Company which he and associates took over and revitalized in 1967. Under his early leadership American Ship tripled its annual revenues and since has climbed to the $200 million mark in annual sales.

In 1973, Steinbrenner put together the group which purchased the New York Yankees from CBS. As the Principal Owner, it took only five years for his keen foresight and aggressive leadership to turn the Yankees, once again, into World Champions.

Apart from corporate business and civic involvements, he devotes a great deal of time to his extensive interest in thoroughbred breeding and racing which includes his 800 acre stud farm in Florida, The Florida Breeders Sales Company and Florida Horse Magazine, the latter two companies which he recently purchased with associates, and the production of Broadway shows. In partnership with James Nederlander of the famous theatrical family, he produced long-running, Tony Award winning musical, "Applause" and another musical hit, "See-Saw." They also put together highly successful national tours of "Funny Girl," "George M." and "On a Clear Day."

McHALE

TALLIS

BERGESCH

GENE McHALE

In naming Gene McHale as President of the New York Yankees on January 5, 1983, Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner said, "In filling this key position, there was no need to look anywhere else but within the Yankee organization. Gene has a solid and proven administrative, business and financial background and has been a longtime employee of the Yankees.

"Much of the progress the Yankees have made in the areas of television, radio, publications, merchandising and ticketing is due to the efforts of him. The Yankees are proud to have employees of the caliber of Gene McHale and to promote from within the organization to fill this position."

Eugene J. "Gene" McHale, 44, has been with the Yankees since December, 1972. As an employee of CBS, who then owned the Yankees, he was assigned to supervise the Yankee accounting department. When George Steinbrenner and associates purchased the Yankees from CBS in January, 1973, McHale remained with the team as controller. He was named administrative vice president in 1977. Before coming to the Yankees, he worked for seven years with CBS with responsibilities in financial and business affairs in their radio division.

A native of the Washington Heights section of Manhattan, McHale graduated from Cardinal Hayes High School several blocks away from Yankee Stadium in the Bronx. He is a graduate of Fordham University and also served three years in the U.S. Navy. Gene is a resident of Locust Valley, NY.

CEDRIC TALLIS

Cedric Tallis, Executive Vice President of the New York Yankees, is in his 35th season of professional baseball—although it took the highest honor an executive can achieve, The Sporting News Executive of the Year Award (1971) to make him nationally known among sports fans.

Tallis began his baseball career in 1948 with the Thomasville, Georgia franchise and his minor league experience also carried him to Jamestown, New York; Flint, Michigan; Montgomery, Alabama; British Columbia; and Seattle, Washington. It was with Vancouver in 1957 that he was named Pacific Coast League Executive of the Year, when his club drew 306,000 fans, a total unequalled in the minor leagues for the next decade. In 1961, he joined the new Los Angeles Angels, the American League expansion team, as Business Manager. In 1965, with the club moving to Anaheim as the California Angels, Cedric became Vice President of Operations, helping to oversee the construction of beautiful Anaheim Stadium.

Tallis joined the Kansas City Royals on January 16, 1968—during the formative season preceding their entry into the American League. Serving as Vice President and General Manager, Tallis engineered a series of successful drafts and trades that molded the Royals into the winningest expansion franchise in history.

The opening of Royals Stadium was one of the highlights of Tallis' stay in Kansas City and he oversaw the refurbishing of the "new" Yankee Stadium during 1975-76. With those remarkable feats in hand, Tallis has had an association with the three most modern and beautiful parks in the league.

Tallis, who attended Concord (New Hampshire) College, enlisted in the Army in 1940 and received a commission after Infantry Officer Candidate School in 1941, serving the Aleutian Campaign and European Theatre. He left the Army as a Major in 1948.

BILL BERGESCH

As the Yankees' Vice President of Baseball Operations, Bill Bergesch works closely with Clyde King, Gene Michael and Cedric Tallis in providing Manager Billy Martin the talent he needs on the field to produce another A.L. pennant and World Championship.

Bill is in his second stint with the Yankees. From 1963 through 1967 he served as traveling secretary and stadium manager.

From 1968 to 1977 he was president of Small Business Investment Company in Manhattan which owned and operated the New York Generals franchise in the North American Soccer League.

He returned to the Yankees in 1978 as Director of Scouting and in 1980 was named Vice President of Baseball Operations.

Bergesch began his baseball career with the St. Louis Cardinals' organization following his graduation from Washington University in St. Louis. He began as general manager of Albany, GA and also worked in Winston Salem, NC, Columbus, GA and Omaha, NB. In 1959 and 1960 he served as Scouting Co-ordinator in St. Louis.

He moved to the Kansas City Athletics as assistant general manager in 1962 and worked with the New York Mets as the farm and scouting director, setting up farm clubs and hiring scouts for the new expansion team.

LUIS TIANT is the only pitcher to defeat the Yankees five times in one season since expansion in 1961. In fact, when he was 5-1 against the Yankees in 1974, he was the first to do it since 1959, when Frank Lary, Don Mossi and Cal McLish all accomplished it.

DID YOU KNOW ... Four Yankee pitchers hit grand slam home runs ... Red Ruffing in 1933, Spud Chandler in 1940, Don Larsen in 1956, and Mel Stottlemyre in 1965.

DID YOU KNOW ... The 1927 Yankees, Murderer's Row, considered by many the greatest team in baseball history, went through the entire 154 game schedule that year using only 25 men.

DID YOU KNOW ... After Babe Ruth, uniform number 3 was worn by George Selkirk, Allie Clark, Joe Medwick (in spring training), Bud Methany, and Cliff Mapes, until it was retired.

ALL TIME YANKEE ROSTER

(through 1982 971 players have appeared in at least one game for the Yankees)

ABOUT ONE-HITTERS

Yankee pitchers have hurled 48 one-hitters over the years, the most recent being by Luis Tiant on July 8, 1979 at Oakland in which Ricky Henderson had a 4th inning single. Bob Turley and Whitey Ford each hurled 3 for the Yanks, and both men participated in a fourth. Luis Tiant had 2 previously, now three overall. Bob Shawkey, Rip Collins, Lefty Gomez, Vic Raschi and Floyd Bevens, each threw two one-hitters, with one of Bevens' coming in a World Series.

The Yankees have been one-hit 41 times, the last two times by Nolan Ryan, he one-hit them only July 13th, 1979 in California, with Reggie Jackson, getting a ninth inning single, and on August 20th, 1973, also in California, with Thurman Munson getting a first inning single. The Yankees have been one-hit 13 times since they were last no hit in 1958. Joe Wood and Earl Hamilton, along with Ryan are the only men with a pair of one-hitters against New York, both of Hamilton's coming in 1913. No-hit pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm, also one hit the Yanks in 1959.

Horace Clarke is the only Yankee to twice serve as a spoiler, breaking up no-hitters by Jim Palmer and Joe Niekro. In 1970 Clarke broke up three no-hitters in the 9th inning in one month, two of which would up being more than one-hitters.

Of recent vintage, Bob Ojeda of Boston took a no-hitter into the 9th inning at Yankee Stadium 9/12/81 only to have Rick Cerone leadoff with a double followed by a Dave Winfield double.

DID YOU KNOW ... The Yankees have won doubleheaders via shutouts in both games 13 times, most recently on September 25, 1977 when Guidry and a combined Figueroa, Lyle shutout stopped the Blue Jays in Toronto. It's happened to the Yankees only four times, most recently on July 27, 1975 when Lee and Moret of Boston did the damage at Shea Stadium.

Elected to Hall of Fame 1939.

#5—JOE DIMAGGIO

Born, November 25, 1914. Threw and batted righthanded. New York Yankees 1936-1951. Elected to Hall of Fame 1955.

#7—MICKEY MANTLE

Led league in home runs four times, ending career with 536, third highest in history at the time. Holds record for most World Series homers with 18, accomplished in 12 World Series. Selected for 20 All-Star Games. 3-times MVP (1956-57-62). Won Hickock Belt in 1956. Played more games (2401) than any Yankee despite injury plagued career. Elected to Hall of Fame 1974.

JOE DIMAGGIO'S HITTING STREAK

Starting on Thursday, May 15, 1941 in Yankee Stadium and continuing until Thursday night, July 17 in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium, where he was finally stopped by pitchers Al Smith and Jim Bagby, DiMaggio piled up this amazing mark:

Consecutive games hit safely	56	Home Runs	15
At bats	223	Triples	4
Hits	91	Doubles	16
Average for streak	.408	Singles	56
Total bases for streak	160	Strikeouts	7
Runs scored	56	Bases on Balls	21
RBIs	55	Hit by pitcher	2

HOME RUNS, ONE MONTH ... Babe Ruth hit 17 homers in September, 1927. Mickey Mantle hit 16 in May, 1956. Ruth had 15 in a month three times, DiMaggio once, and Maris once.

DID YOU KNOW ... that when Joe DiMaggio hit safely in 56 consecutive games in 1941, he collected 56 singles and also scored 56 runs during the streak?

DID YOU KNOW ... that when Babe Ruth hit his 60 homers in 1927, 19 were made off lefthanders? He hit two grand slams and batted in 100 runs with his homers.

DID YOU KNOW ... that Babe Ruth twice hit grand slam home runs on consecutive days?

DID YOU KNOW ... Lou Gehrig was pinch-hit for eight times in his career, but only twice after 1925—by Earle Combs in 1932 and by Myril Hoag in 1935. Babe Ruth was pinch-hit for by Bobby Veach on Aug. 9, 1925.

The Yankees were the first team to wear uniform numbers regularly (1929), and their numbers have always been a source of fascination. More are retired than on any other team . . . Did you know that Joe DiMaggio was #9 as a rookie? Yogi Berra was #35? Mickey Mantle #6? Bobby Richardson #29? Roy White #48?

RE-ENTRY DRAFT INFORMATION

Criterion for Ranking Players

Ranking players are those in the top 30 per cent at their position over the past two years on the basis of a set of pre-determined statistics. Type A players are in the top 20 per cent, Type B in the 21-30 percentile.

Players who previously have gone through the Re-Entry Draft and those with 12 or more years of credited service may not be ranking players. Players selected by fewer than four clubs are free to sign with any club.

• Five teams—Boston, California, Los Angeles, Minnesota and Seattle—elected in 1981 not to participate in the selection of Type A ranking players and, as such, are considered to be "excluded" for three years or through the 1983 Re-Entry Draft.

Compensation for Ranking Players

Compensation for ranking players is as follows:

- Type A: An amateur draft choice plus a professional player selected from a pool of all non-protected players.
- Type B: Two amateur draft choices (one from the selecting club and the other an added special choice in the June Free Agent Draft.

All clubs with the exception of the excluded clubs must make players available to the pool for possible selection as compensation. A club which does not sign a Type A player is entitled to protect 26 players in its organization; a club that signs a Type A player can protect 24. No club may lose more than one player a year from the pool. A team losing a player from the pool for the first time shall receive $150,000 from a fund created by equal contributions from all the clubs.

Selection Procedure

There is no limit to the number of clubs that may select negotiation rights to a player. Selections in the Re-Entry Draft will continue until each club passes in two consecutive rounds. Any club that passes in two consecutive rounds is no longer eligible to make selections, except to retain negotiation rights with its former players.

The number of players in the draft determines how many free agents a club may sign. With that number above 39 each club may sign three. Teams losing more than three players are eligible to sign a number equal to the total lost.
